

Registration

- ⇒ Registration Deadline: May 31, 2023
- ⇒ KPA Membership Organization Fee: $75*
- ⇒ Refunds are not available
- ⇒ The conference is free for KPA Members

**KPA Membership entitles members to attend the Annual Conference and other KPA educational programs.*

Each day's registration includes:

- June 4 Networking picnic at Lure Lodge
- June 5 Networking breakfast, lunch, conference day 1,
- June 6 Networking breakfast, conference day 2

To receive contact hours, participants must register for the conference through the KPA Training Hub, attend the full day(s) for which registered, and provide their license number. There are no prerequisites to participate in this activity. Sponsors reserve the right to substitute speakers with equivalent credentials.

This conference and sessions were created by KPA for nurses, nurse practitioners, midwives, social workers, physicians, or other interested perinatal professionals.

Contact Kyperinatal@aol.com for additional information.

Gary Walls
Executive Director
Kentucky Perinatal Association

Location

Lake Cumberland State Resort Park
Lure Lodge
5465 State Park Rd
Jamestown, KY 42629
270-343-3111

For KPA conference Lodging Reservations:
Call 270-343-3111
Ask for KPA Conference Room Rate

Note:

- ◆ The temperature of the meeting space can vary. Please dress for your own comfort and bring a sweater or jacket.
- ◆ The meeting space is non-smoking
- ◆ Find more park information at parks.ky.gov

Hot Topics in Perinatology 2023

June 4-6, 2023

35th Annual Meeting of the Kentucky Perinatal Association

Day 1—Monday, June 5, 2022

7 AM: Breakfast and Registration

8:15 AM: Opening Remarks—Gary Walls (15 min)

8:30 AM: Presidents Corner, A Call to Action—
Dr. Tonia Reid, KPA President (15 min)

8:45 AM: History and Current Trends,
Henrietta Bada, MD, MPH (50 min)

9:35 AM: Improving Maternal Health Equity
Trey Allen, PhD and
Ashley Brandt, MBA (50 min)

10:25 AM: Break and VENDOR MALL

10:45 AM: Nursing Documentation and Legal Issues
Noelle Haegele, JD, BSN (50 min)

11:45 AM: LUNCH—VENDOR MALL

1:00 PM: The Importance of Human Milk
David Adamkin, MD (50 min)

1:50 PM: BREAK and VENDOR MALL

2:00 PM: Breastfeeding: Support for
Maternal/Newborn Choices for Feeding
Doraine Bailey, MA, IBCLC (50 min)

3:00 PM—End of Day Wrap-up

Objectives

At the conclusion of this program, participants will be able to:

- ◆ List the state's performance measures that guide providers and the public in promoting maternal/child health in Kentucky.
- ◆ Define maternal health equity.
- ◆ List prevention measures you as provider(s) can be involved in to reduce maternal and child mortality in Kentucky.
- ◆ Discuss ways providers can impact and improve equity for their maternal population.
- ◆ Review the benefits of donor human milk for premature infants.
- ◆ Examine the use of donor human milk for premature infants.
- ◆ Discuss the controversy around NEC prevention with human milk and formula.
- ◆ Identify ways climate change impacts pregnancy.
- ◆ Describe the impetus for developing a 4th trimester program.
- ◆ Discuss steps to create a 4th trimester program.
- ◆ Understand how geographic distribution, social determinants, health equity and racial distribution impact the maternal child health population.
- ◆ Understand priority needs impacting the maternal and child health population.
- ◆ Understand the legal process generally as it applies to civil litigation.
- ◆ Understand common nursing issues that arise in in medical malpractice litigation.
- ◆ Understand documentation issues in charting and in electronic medical records.
- ◆ Review breastfeeding best practices for initiation and duration of breastfeeding per national guidelines.
- ◆ Describe breastfeeding environments and how to help families achieve their goals.
- ◆ Identify strengths and weaknesses within Kentucky healthcare systems impacting breastfeeding initiation and duration.
- ◆ Formulate a plan of action within the participant's area of practices to improve breastfeeding outcomes.
- ◆ Identify leadership techniques to build resiliency in the work force.
- ◆ Describe two approaches to developing personal resilience.
- ◆ Recognize on area of influence in the lives of patients/clients.

Day 2—Tuesday, June 6, 2022

7 AM: Breakfast and Registration

8:15 AM: Annual Business Meeting

8:45 AM: The Intersection of Maternal-Newborn
Health and Climate Change (50 min)
Sister Kay Kramer, APRN, CNM

9:35 AM: What is the 4th Trimester Program
and How Do I Create One? (50 min)
Allana Oak, DO

10:25 AM: BREAK and VENDOR MALL

10:45 AM: Maternal and Child Health (50 min)
Jan Bright, RN, BSN

11:15 AM: Encouraging Resilience in Staff and Family
(50 min)
Tonia Reid, MD

12:45—Final Day Wrap Up

The Kentucky Board of Nursing and Board of Social Work have approved:

- Day 1 of this course to be 5 contact hours. KBN Provider #5-0006-12-23-00_ Exp. 12/31/23.
- Day 2 of this course to be 4 contact hours. KBN Provider #5-0006-12-23-00_ Exp. 12/31/23.